

Dear Sir/Madam

Sub: Announcement of Results of Legislation Drafting Challenge, 2013

Daksh is proud to announce the results of Legislation Drafting Challenge, 2013, a contest driven to encourage students to draft legislation in areas that require reform. The contest was announced in November 2013.

Teams from across the country have participated in the event. Participants were given two broad areas Electoral Reforms and Transparency in governance to work on.

P.Promoth, Akhil Kang and Amulya Purushotama from the fourth year of NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad have won the first prize.

Akanksha Sharma, Sukarma Thapa, Ashish Saraswat and Bhavna Bhasin from the fourth year of Amity Law School, New Delhi have won the second prize and Anirudha Jain & Krishna Vohra from the fourth year of Devi Ahilya University, Indore have won the third prize.

Akshay Kulkarni, Rhea Nath from the 12th grade, Tejas Rao, Atreya Mathur and Dipannita Mukherjee from the 11th grade and Anusha Ramji from the 10th grade of Inventure Academy of Bangalore have won the consolation prizes in the contest.

Judges of the contest were Nitin Pai of Takshashila Institution, Arghya Sengupta of Vidhi Centre for Legal Policy and Ashwin Mahesh of Mapunity.

Winners are awarded cash prizes of Rs. 10,000, Rs 7,500 and Rs 5,000 by Daksh and law books by Eastern Book Company and SCC Online.